An editorial read taken from Labor Leader entitled "Quakers to the Aid of German Jews" which was most interesting in that the American delegates representing the Friends Service Committee had just returned from Philadelphia from Germany where for a month they had been discussing with Nazi leaders plans for aiding the Jewish victims of Nazi persecution.
Particularly interesting to find this delegation was headed by Dr. Rufus M. Jones of Haverford College. "In Quito, So these descendants of Wm. Penn are in a fair way to solve a problem which has aroused bitterest feeling throughout the English Speaking world It should be noted that in doing the job they have not indulged in a single weakening word or threatened either military or economic reprisals If you want a huge relief job done quietly promptly, efficiently without beating of drums or blowing of horns, turn it over to the Quakers A vote of thanks was passed for Mrs Jones for the fruit sent here at Xmas time.

Another year and again our Friends the Coneys have visited with us this year accompanied by Myron & Ruth Jennes of Salem and also Harvey Jones of Freeport Maine

It was a blessed meeting the dear friends. Ruth Jennes especially as "She was" blind and such a wonderful personality, and one could scarcely realize she was unable to see while conversing with her. and my room-mate the most devoted husband

We had met Harvey Jones previously at Yearly Meeting and was glad to have him with us here at our Meeting

Janet & Elsie, as usual sang messages, and the services were an inspiration to us all.

They left for home Tuesday 9 AM and there had been a big snow fall the night previously, So we felt best to see them leave by R.R. not possible to stay over

We welcomed the Tonys again this year somewhat earlier in the season in the beautiful month of June and they were accompanied by Edgett Marie Chapman who is Chairman of Committee on Meetings and Extension

although strangers to us Edgett and Marie Chapman endeared them selves to all

Edgett Chapman sang Solos during Meetings and Some of course Bonds Songs and Irving is interesting in that a young man starting out in life the Head the Director of Bonds company in Singing Songs and once she requested the Herald Sing one of her Songs with her which he considered a great honour

He had a splendid voice and we certainly enjoyed the Fellowship of all these Epic Friends

Chapmans
They had never been up in this County before So were thrilled with the rude Awakening the different Scenes and the Country Side was beautiful

We all had dinner in Presque Isle at Porters Lodge on Sunday

James showed some beautiful colored pictures Monday evening of The Isle of Lewis Scotland painted by Elsie Wood which made them doubly interesting

Left for home Tuesday 9 PM.
They are always entertained by the friends in this community going to the different homes to call on those who are sick and shut ins.

1954–55

On August 16th, 1954, James and Elsie Coney, who were visiting from Sidley, Virginia, were very acceptably with us in worship at the meeting house. John and Lelia (Maitland) Taylor and their two children, Kathleen and Stephen, were also present. Friends not only appreciated the message but also James and Elsie Coney's singing and Lelia Taylor's violin. Friends were encouraged to continue meetings with the leadership of Lelia Taylor, a recorded minister from South Durham (Maine) Monthly Meeting, who is now living in Bridgewater.

From August 20-23, 1954, Grace Frost, Albert Smith (pastor, aged 91), Virginia and Kevin Towle from North Fairfield visited among the people and encouraged having regular meetings. Milton Hadley, Yearly Meeting Field Secretary and Myron and Ruth Glennes from Gonic (New Hampshire) Meeting also visited and the men did some work on the meetinghouse. Neighborhood folks met at the home of Cecil and Mary Duncan. Ideas for meeting outreach were discussed.

As a result of these efforts worship was held as long as weather permitted. In the late spring of 1955 meetings again started and a vacation Bible school was held with the help of a worker from the American Sunday School Union. Lelia Taylor was unable to assist after the fall of 1955.
